Subject:	Viktor

Ehud,
At the meeting yesterday Viktor spoke with a great sense of urgency about his obligations to Skolkovo and the need to find ASAP a qualified person to be the president of Skolkovo University. It is harder to get an American candidate these days but he is trying while being open to candidates from other places, especially Israel.
He said that he did mentioned it to you before.
The compensation is high, $1 million I believe, and the requirement is to spend 50% to 75% of the time in Moscow.
The person he is looking for should have a noticeable academic background as well as some business experience and a drive to build the school.
Since you know so many people I promised Viktor that I will bring it to your attention one more time and see if you can think of someone,
Thanks,
Yaron
